Aline Hobbs chosen as forestry queen

A 19-year-old University of Southern Mississippi sophomore, Aline Jane Hobbs, is Hancock County's 1962 queen of the forest. She was chosen over nine other contestants in the annual meet at Hancock North Central School last Thursday night with a panel of judges from Keesler Air Force Base making the selection.

Aline, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis F. Hobbs of Bay St. Louis, now moves into contention for the southeast district title at Hattiesburg Friday and Saturday.

Chosen as first alternate was Sue Breath, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Breath, Jr., who reigned as Miss Bay St. Louis last year, while second alternate went to Glenda Lynette Kennedy who lives with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. John Buffin.

The new queen was crowned by the 1961 title, Nina Kay Erwin, Michael Haas served as master of ceremonies for the occasion and Rep. Clarence Ladner was guest speaker. Judges were 2nd Lt. Leonard J. Debas, Maj. Robert T. Miller and Airman first class Kenneth Bragdon. Sponsoring the event which Area Forester Glenn Purvis directed were the Mississippi Forestry Commission, Coast Electric Power Assn., Hancock Bank, Merchants Bank and Jack Lott. Assisting with arrangements were Mrs. Cornelius Favre, Miss Ethel Favre, Hugh Sanford, Tom Logue, Capt. E. F. Beyer, Mrs. John Green and D. J. Martin.

SEEK DREDGE PERMIT
Louisiana Materials Co., Inc., of New Orleans has applied to the U. S. Corps of Engineers at Mobile for a permit to dredge shell in the Mississippi Sound from an area immediately south of the Gulf Intracoastal Waterway between Grand Island and Cat Island. Protests because of navigation should be lodged in Mobile by Oct. 7.

Suprs. to seek study on hospital

In an abbreviated session Wednesday the Hancock County Board of Supervisors unanimously voted to write the State Commission on Hospital Care, asking them to request the United States Public Health Service to make a survey of the hospital needs of Hancock County in view of the probable large population increase due to the NASA test facility.

Action was taken on motion of Best 4 Supervisor James Nease, seconded by Best 2 Supervisor I. M. Frierson, after Thomas O. Logue, hospital administrator, informed the board that the hospital board had asked to request this action and that he understood there would be no cost to the county. Should such a survey be made (Cont. on Page 6.)

Judge pushes enforcement of secondary road speeds
"Increasing accidents and deaths on our highways" caused Judge Leslie B. Grant to direct his initial remarks Monday to the assembled county elected officials in addition to the grand jury. Grant pointed out that the courts originally held an automobile not to be a dangerous instrumentality in itself, but suggested that cars greatly increased speeds might mean a change is needed on this point of law, and that many people needed to pay more attention when driving. The judge's emphasis on traffic safety was prompted by a letter from T. B. Birdsong, commissioner of public safety, asking that the matter be brought to the public's attention and particularly requesting the enforcement of traffic laws on roads not under the jurisdiction of the state highway patrol. Grant concluded his instructions to the grand jury with a routine explanation of the members' duties and responsibilities and stressed that each juror should make up his own mind.

JURY DUTY NOTED
The importance of the grand jury to our government was the topic of Michael Haas in his talk to Rotary at the club's luncheon yesterday. Community leaders were urged by Haas not to evade this duty which he terms an honor.

Bay pupil jam ups tax hike problem

Jes D. McCulloch, superintendent of the Bay St. Louis Municipal Separate School District, told the board of trustees at Monday night's meeting that for proper operation the system needed more funds, estimating that an additional levy of at least three quarters of a mill would be needed.

"We've had a time," he said, referring to the more than 140 additional students this year and an estimated $1,500 less revenue from the county system for educating pupils from its area. This drop of some 20 students, mostly from the Gainesville area, appears primarily due to families leaving the county from the NASA test site.

McCulloch explained in detail to the board his plans for transfer of some students between schools and between classes in an effort to equalize the pupil-teacher ratio. His policy, he said, was to try to keep classes at 30 or less pupils, but in several instances this was impossible, although with no increased enrollment 36 might be the maximum.

He stated that although he had hired an additional fourth grade teacher, two more are needed—one second grade and one for Valena C. Jones—and therein lies part of the money problem, although by cutting corners otherwise the superintendent felt he could afford one of the two teachers. This teacher would be used to teach a combination class, that is a class consisting of two grades under one teacher in one room. Board President Robert Hamilton and Sam Whitfield objected to this. However, after it was explained that even if still another teacher was available there was no additional classroom available.

Hamilton then suggested a low partition be placed between the two classes and after a lengthy discussion it was decided to leave the matter up to decision of the teacher involved.

Another immediate money problem results from the need for the new stadium to have its own well, estimated to cost in the neighborhood of $5,000 by McCulloch. The trustees felt this figure was much too high but agreed on the need for two reasons: 1. heavy demand on the city system in the Cedar Point area and, 2. necessity of almost continuous watering the sod on the playing field during extended dry spells such as the area has experienced this summer.

S and M Iron Works, New Orleans, estimated the cost of two stair type fire escapes for the front side of Bay High at $1,700, and again the question arose as to where was the money coming from. At present the only fire escapes are two ladder type ones on the rear of the building. McCulloch said that while the school more than met the state requirements and fire drills showed the school could be emptied in one minute and a half with both stairwells available, he thought either stair or ladder type fire escapes should be provided for the front of the building. The trustees indicated they agreed with the ladder type probable, because of its relatively low cost, but no action was taken. Another matter postponed for further consideration was the re-routing of a school bus going to lower Waveland. The matter was brought before the board by John R. Haywood, 824 Beach Blvd., who complained on his own and others behalf that for the past five years the school bus had stopped in front of his home but that it now turned at Sears Avenue, about a quarter of a mile away, necessitating his first (Cont. on Page 6.)

1 more mill for schools in county?

A formal request to the board of supervisors for a one mill increase for district funds for county schools was unanimously voted by the County Board of Education Tuesday night. The school board has sought this increase for several years, but the crowded condition of Gulfview School and the need for more teachers had been advanced earlier as making the increase necessary. Motion was made by S. P. Powell, seconded by E. P. Ortte.

Subject to certain limitations contained in a letter from the state board of education, the school board approved payment to Ben Hill Motors for two GMC bus chassis at $3,265 each, f.o.b. Ft. Valley, Ga.; to Porter's Pontiac for one International chassis at $3,274.88, f.o.b. factory; and to Gulf Chevrolet for one Chevrolet chassis at $3,258.43, f.o.b. Kosciusko. (Cont. on Page 6.)

HGH board adopts peak budget, seeks addition

Trustees of Hancock General Hospital Tuesday night pushed efforts to plan for expansion of facilities at an early date in view of the increasing patient load and adopted a record budget of $234,050 for the coming fiscal year.

In seeking study of an addition to the physical plant, the board unanimously recommended that the county board of supervisors ask the State Commission on Hospital Care to request a U. S. Public Health Services survey of the matter. Administrator Thomas O. Logue noted that recently the patient load in the 32-bed institution has been averaging 24 a day compared with 12 to 14 a year ago.

With completion of the 1961 audit, cost per patient day in 1960-61 was $29.84, Logue reported. He also disclosed he has applied to receive surplus food products for indigent patients.

Cornelius J. Ladner, building committee chairman, reported that indications are the roofing problem of the hospital will be fixed at no cost to the institution.

Classroom count 4,306 enroll

There are almost 200 more noses in schools throughout Hancock County this year than at the opening of the 1961-62 session as the first impact of the space age growth reaches here.

The unofficial count is 4,306 and they're still enrolling although the new term is nearly two weeks old. Opening figure last year was 4,148.

Biggest gain has been in the Bay St. Louis Municipal Separate School District where Superintendent J. D. McCulloch listed 1,642 pupils on Tuesday against 1,500 at the close of last term. White enrollment stood at 1,093, up 146 from the start of last year, and Negro at 549 against 498 in the previous session.

Bay High School is literally bursting with 403 students while there are 690 in white elementary classes. Valena C. Jones, Negro school, has 210 enrolled in the high school division, grades seven through 12, and 339 in the first six grades.

Suffering the next worst case of growing pains is the small Gulfview School of the county system where enrollment has soared to 165 with five teachers against 130 last year. Principal Oren Seal said one teacher is handling 46 children in the combined first and second grades while there are 44 in the third and fourth years, also taught together.

Rough estimates indicate Hancock North Central has a somewhat smaller enrollment, in the neighborhood of 750, while Logtown School, hit by the vacation of the NASA test site fee area, is down to 147, not as much as anticipated.

Decreases are shown also by St. Stanislaus College and Our Lady of the Gulf Parish School.

Stanislaus now has 407 students, 240 of them in the high school division and with 152 day students and 255 boarders, against 416 last year, and OLG lists 522, a drop of 18. St. Joseph Academy runs constant at "approximately 275" and Christ Episcopal Day School is at 190, up only 10 with the addition of a nursery class this year.

St. Rose de Lima School gained slightly with 208 enrolled to date, 63 in high school work. This is eight more than last year.

Property owners add 8 members

Eight new members were added to the Mississippi Test Facility Property Owners Committee at a reorganizational meeting Friday night at Logtown School as residents of the buffer zone geared for government acquisition of the buffer zone.

According to Rev. August Holden of Napoleon, member of the original committee, those added were Francis I. (Coat) Lee and M. G. Eccles, Flatop; Eddie Martin, Mrs. Eunice Casanova, and Rev. Neville Sams, Negro, all of Logtown; Mrs. Charles Bannister and Mrs. David Wainwright, Bayou LaCrosse, and Mrs. Irma Frierson, secretary, Santa Rosa.

Dr. J. F. Fargason, chairman, reported on committee work since its formation last May, asked for contributions, and advised persons selling their land to the government to wait until the purchase check clears before moving elsewhere, some title problems having arisen in the fee zone.

Riemann purchases local funeral home

Fahey-Whitfield Funeral Home in Bay St. Louis has been purchased by Riemann Funeral Homes, former owner Kenneth Whitfield disclosed this week.

The new owners have changed the name to Riemann's Fahey-Whitfield Funeral Home, and the establishment will continue to serve Bay St. Louis, Waveland, Clermont Harbor, and surrounding area, Riemann's, which began operation in Gulfport in 1920, now has locations in Gulfport, Pass Christian, and Long Beach in addition to the Bay home.

Harbor Happenings

BY RAE COPE

HO-7-5897

Mr. and Mrs. George Donald Wesner and children, Kitty, Don Jr., Thomas W., Betty, Jerry and Carolyn, have returned to their home in Philadelphia after a delightful vacation with relatives in New Orleans and Clermont. While in New Orleans they divided their vacation among Mr. Wesner's four brothers, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Wesner, Jr., Rev. W. J. Wesner, Mr. and Mrs. John Wilbert Wesner and son Gene, Mr. and Mrs. Peter A. Wesner and children Peter, Jr., Mary, Tommy and Jinnie, at whose homes they were treated at supper parties, barbecues and swimming parties galore. In Clermont, while guests of the father, H. L. Wesner, sr., and Mrs. Wesner swimming, crabbing, floundering and boating consumed most of the time. The highlight of their vacation was a all-day re-union when the entire clan, cousin Billy Porter of N. O. included, meeting at the Wesner home on Forest St. for a last day of fun before driving homeward next day in time to enter the children in school.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brown and their children, Patsy and Bobbie, have returned from a visit with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Szemanski in Sacramento, Calif. Both Cynthia and Bob are employed at the Douglas Missile plant where their employer permitted the family to en tour, but the children liked best the century old products of nature, such as the Painted Desert, the Petrified Forest. They toured Lake Tahoe, San Francisco, where they observed the Golden Gate, and Las Vegas, where they saw the sights, but enjoyed more, a brief visit with Rev. and Mrs. Dale Lartin and children, formerly their next-door neighbors in Clermont, who expressed the wish other friends coming their way would stop by and see them. Mr. and Mrs. Brown were accompanied on the trip by brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Roland Mazzeros of New Orleans, who shared the driving chore; they encountered only one speed trap in the thousands of miles they traveled.

Cake and candles

A belated birthday wish to Maria Peterson who celebrated her natal day on Aug. 28. And congratulations to Mrs. N. F. Nelson who will celebrate by blowing out the candles on her cake on Sept. 20.

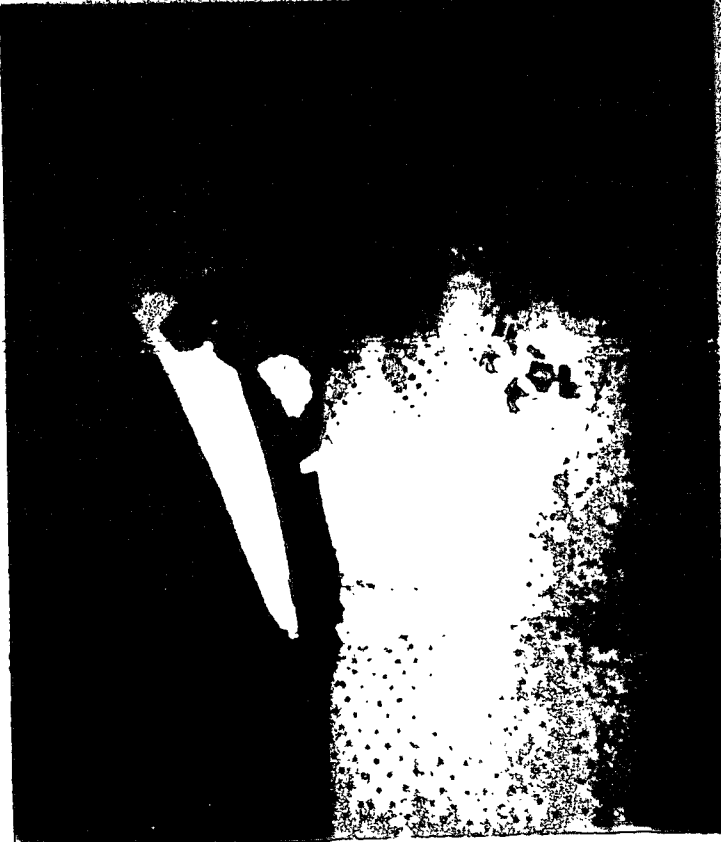

Mike, Frank Simmons' big Labrador retriever, mentioned in this column recently as having heart worms, received two get-well cards, and Frank received four telephone calls about him. Mike has his good and bad days, is slightly better, but his heart operation is still on schedule for October.

Uncle Willie Lohmer had a surprise visit from his friend, Loren Dedaux, whom he had not seen in years. Mr. Dedaux, owner of the packing company of the same name in Gulfport, had just returned from France where he visited many packing houses and farms where some of the cattle weighed 3,000 pounds.

What's in a name

Betty and Channing Fell of N. O. have a summer home in Bay St. Louis. Betty's maiden name was Boisdore's pronounced Boy-de-ra. Recently Channing's sister-and brother-in-law bought a place in Pass Christian Isles on Bayou BOISDORRE. A number of years ago a great uncle of Channing donated land to Waveland, which is now known as FELL ST.

Back from a business trip of a month in Australia, Wayne Hunsate of Detroit decided to visit his sister, Esther Hunsate, on the West Coast before visiting sister-in-law, Rosemary Hunsate, on the Miss. Gulf Coast. After leaving sister Es, Rosemary's sister-in-law, in Los Angeles he started eastward and dropped by the Frank McElreys, in Shreveport, Rosemary's sister and brother-in-law, Hank, to ask them to accompany him on the rest of the trip, but Maizie, the only woman president of Shreveport Little Theater in its 30 or more years existence, had too many commitments to wave. Hank, however, came along for the ride and the two brothers-in-law gave Rosemary a big surprise by meeting her at the commuter Thursday evening.

MR. AND MRS. TRAVIS CULBREATH

Mrs. Schultz, Mr. Culbreath wed Saturday

The marriage of Mrs. Louella Bourgeois Schultz and Travis Culbreath was solemnized at 3 p.m. Saturday at St. Clare's Catholic Church. Rev. John O'Brien officiated at the single ring ceremony.

The bride wore a street length dress of heavy beige silk organza with small brown polka dots featuring tiny rolled collar, fitted bodice, three-quarter length cuffed puff sleeves and full skirt with unpressed pleats. Her mink trimmed hat, reptile shoes, gloves and hand bag were brown, her corsage, a cluster of brown orchids.

Miss Carol Bourgeois was her aunt's maid of honor. Her chapeau pink ballerina length frock at Annapolis.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Schaeffer, Jr., Carol Anne and Herbert III, Mrs. Schaeffer, sr. and Mrs. Carl Olson arrived home Sunday after vacationing in the Smoky Mountains.

Mrs. Dunbar Chambers of Houston, Texas, left Monday after spending the weekend as the guest of Mrs. Ruth Wood Luderbach.

Maj. and Mrs. Charles Middleton and daughter visited Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Sporton last week. Major Middleton has been in England the past four years where he has served in the United States Air Force.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Perillat entertained members of the younger set at their home Saturday night.

Mrs. G. C. Yancey returned to her home in Tuskegee, Ala., Thursday after a week's visit with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. James Mayfield.

Former residents, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Harding of New Orleans, spent Labor Day weekend in their Michoud Avenue summer home.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Vaughn had a weekend guests their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. James Baker of New Orleans and four children, Carol Faye, Bobby, Billy and Charles.

Christ School staff, trustees are feted

Rev. Charles R. Johnson, headmaster of Christ Episcopal Day School, and Mrs. Johnson entertained Sunday evening at the rectory with a reception honoring the faculty and trustees of the school and their escorts.

Peering were Mesdames James Robert, R. A. Schimmayer, George Morse, Fred Wagner, Richard Hadden and W. L. McFarland while those serving were Misses Carol Stone, Helen and Elizabeth Johnson.

Wife of pink silk chiffon with scooped neckline, wide shoulder straps, tucked bodice, fitted waistline and very full gathered skirt. Her hat and accessories were white, her corsage, tiny pink sweetheart roses.

Ory Bourgeois, brother of the bride, was best man.

The reception was at the Culbreath home on Farrar Lane. White blossoms filled the receiving rooms. The bride's table covered with an imported lace cloth was centered with the four tiered white cake flanked with tapered silver holders and arrangements of white carnations and stock.

THERE IS NO "R.E.A." IN MISSISSIPPI

"R. E. A." means "Rural Electrification Administration", which is a branch of the U. S. Department of Agriculture. This agency serves as a bank for lending money to make electric power available in rural areas.

Following formation of this bank by Congress in 1935, Mississippians worked together in 26 areas of the state and formed "Electric Power Associations". They borrowed money from "R. E. A." to serve themselves with electricity. They are repaying the loans with interest.

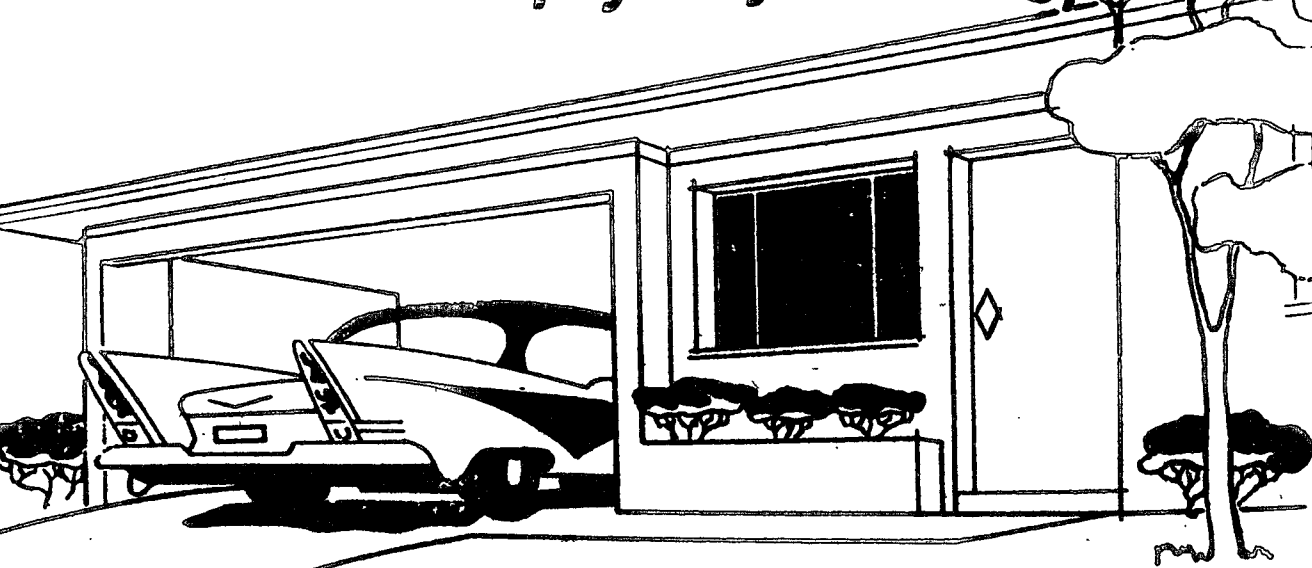

Today these 26 associations serve more than 230,000 rural homes, farms, schools, churches and industries with electricity at reasonable rates. They are no more owned or controlled by "the government" or "R. E. A." than your home or car is owned and controlled by the finance company or bank through which you financed them. When you finance a new car, you don't tell the neighbors "We're driving a new blue 'Joe Deaks Finance Company' car." You bought that car on the strength of your credit, and you pay for it, with interest, as you drive it.

That's the way of the Electric Power Associations in Mississippi. The people who use the electricity are paying for it, along with the poles and lines, as they use it. They own the associations. They in no way constitute "federalized" or "socialized" power. These people built their associations with money borrowed from "R. E. A." and are repaying the loans with interest.

It's as simple as that. There is no "R. E. A." in Mississippi. There are 26 Electric Power Associations owned and controlled by the people they serve.

Electric Power Associations are no more owned or controlled by "R. E. A." than your home or car is owned or controlled by the bank or finance company through which it was purchased.

AUTUMN

Autumn is here again at last. The leaves will soon be fading fast. Halloween time is drawing near. With all its fun and good cheer. People will scream as ghost(s) go by. Witches on brooms may darken the sky. Goodbye to summer and winter's to come. Goodbye to swimming, goodbye to the sun.

I sort of seem to feel a 'rabbit trot over my grave' rereading the above lines, which had been put carefully away by my late grandmother some 30 years ago. . . the small contribution of my ten year old brain wasn't too scared however, as a grocery list containing meat, salt, corn flakes, turnips (ugh), port roast, sweet potatoes, and Kraft's magic whip salad dressing had been penned thereon. Anyway it does prove two things, one: that my handwriting was much better then than now, and to all aspiring writers, it's possible to get just about anything published one way or another, if you wait long enough.

Weekenders keep coming

We thought this would be a dead weekend after Labor Day's excitement, but weekenders seemed undeterred by rain, mosquitoes and school's beginning. . . the beach was almost full once more Saturday and fishermen and crabbers were plentiful along the seavall. Polly and James McConnell had as a weekend guest Mrs. Mason Ahearn of New York City.

Visiting faithful Farrar Lane weekenders, Thelma and Eddie Jones last week were Thelma's brother-in-law and sister, Lt. Col. and Mrs. Lee Mobley of Warrington, Fla., and Mr. and Mrs. Roland Thibodeaux of New Orleans.

Good friend Hazel (Mrs. Charles ) Dahlin had as Labor Day guests Mrs. Earl Whittington, Mrs. Earline Franks and Miss Loretta Golligan, all of New Orleans.

Edna Yarbrough informs us that daughter Sally and husband Ronald Rabb have just moved into a lovely new apartment in the Claiborne Towers.

We were shocked late Saturday to learn of the passing of our very good friend, and neighbor, Mr. Charlie Bradley, who had only been seriously ill since Monday. Many of his local friends heard the sad news much too late to attend the funeral or to even send messages of sympathy and floral offerings as the obituary didn't appear in the daily paper until Saturday afternoon. We're still a bit too upset to accept the fact that Mr. Charlie is no longer with us, but we can extend our heartfelt sympathy to Marcella, Mrs. Bradley, and add that Jeff Davis Avenue will always seem a bit empty without him.

Larry Sauer, Jr., isn't at all happy with his doctor's ultimatum—he's scheduled to enter Gulfport Memorial, where he'll spend seven weeks in traction to correct torn cartilage in his knee, the injury resulting from a minor traffic mishap several weeks ago.

On the sports scene

Isobel Villere was sort of let-down after snagging her first mackerel last Wednesday—it was a good sized fish, but smaller catfish put up more of a fight. Shirley and Ed Hawkins and children, Carol and Donnie, caught about 20 trout on an overnight trip Saturday and Sunday at Mitchell Keys. . . Donnie landed the largest trout, weighing about three and one-half pounds. Saturday night it was nip and tuck as to who or what would get in the most bites, fish or mosquitoes. Dove season opened at noon Saturday—Jack and Jackie Seuzeneau and the Mayfield clan were waiting with cocked guns when the whistle blew. . . not literally, of course, but their attitude suggested the idea. Others 'loaded for bear' so to speak, were Brewster Mollers, Ralph Morel and Dick Mestayer, Jr.

Mystery of the week

Who has a cat trap? Or is anyone able to construct one???? Edith (Mrs. Frank) Banach would truly like to discover answers to these queries. . . She's ever run with wild cats which consume the goldfish in her ponds faster than she can stock them. . . the unfortunate felines: were fed by vacationers who cared for them for periods ranging from two weeks to three months, then leave the animals to root hog or die, upon their departure. They are exceedingly prolific, quite uncatchable and can only be picked up by the city truck after they're rounded up. . . consequently the urgent need for a workable cat trap.

Get well wishes go first to Lakeshore Leg authoress, Nina (Mrs. Malcolm) Green who's column will not appear this week, not also being the root of her trouble. She spent five days as a patient in Hancock General Hospital recovering from a severe case of serum poisoning resulting from a tetanus shot taken after her cat bit her while she was feeding it. . . that's literally biting the hand, etc. Get well wishes also to Mrs. E. C. Samuel and Dick Clark, both patients in the local hospital. Anniversary greetings to Dr. and Mrs. Bobby Houston who took off for the weekend to celebrate.

Bay side of the news

Mr. and Mrs. Owen Williams enjoyed a three day weekend vacation in New Orleans revisiting the Monticello Hotel where they spent their honeymoon several years and five children ago.

Just in case anyone is curious, admiring throngs on Coleman Avenue Sunday night weren't clustered around some fantastic specimen of marine life, not yet oohing and aahing over someone's offspring—Brewster Mollers' night bleaming caviars popped forth in perfumed glory and friends and neighbors were summoned to view the enormous white blossom. Harry Lynch insists Brewster was almost as excited over the event as when his first son put in an appearance.

A large group of friends and relatives were present to wish all of the best to brand new Mr. and Mrs. Travis Culbreath, nee Luella Schultz. Luella was a lovely bride when she strolled down the aisle in shades of brown and beige—Travis chose navy, his boutonniere, a single white carnation. . . his new brother-in-law, Ory Bourgeois, was resplendent in light brown gabardine, he too sported a carnation in his boutonhole. . . detailed accounts of gentlemen's raiment are due to the fact that they're inevitably ignored in society write-ups!

Gray Wade, Bubba White, Joe Smith, Larry Sauer and Billy Ireland were partial to navy. . . Mel Villere wore charcoal as did Asa Peterson and Chink LaFontaine. All of the women including Mary Wade, Cleo Smith, Betty Hill, Gertrude Sauer, Dot Mayfield, Louise Wymer, Ida Bourgeois, Meg Baneford, Sarah Colby, Ruth LaFontaine, Della Bourgeois, etc., were slaves to the dictates of fashion and suffered in fall attire.

Complaint dept.

We bow to the consensus of opinion and fuss about mosquitoes. . . we'd have brought it up before, but were too busy

Mrs. Arceneaux takes over St. Margarets group post

Re. Rev. Msgr. James J. Harrison opened a joint meeting of St. Margaret's Daughters and Altar and Blessed Sacrament Society at 8:30 p.m. last Thursday, at Our Lady of the Gulf parish hall.

Mrs. E. J. Arceneaux, vice president, who will assume leadership of St. Margaret's Daughters for the remainder of the year in the absence of Mrs. V. J. Piazza, presided. Reports were given on a party for veterans Aug. 17, in Gulfport; Misses Piazza and Alberta Beyer were scratching to spare even one finger to type a word or so about the pests. Being strictly a warm weather fan, we're afraid to complain. . . having poignant and painful memories of last January's Freeze. Remember?—no water, not enough heat and that biting north wind??? Not sed? We were just lukewarm griping about the obvious—new we've had id tv commercials normally are taken with a grain of salt—we'll suffer through lyrical lines praising body odor removing soap and deodorant, cavity removing dentifrices, hair dries so subtle that 'only your hairdresser knows', the 'tougher repair man's pliers' sent over-bubbling detergents. . . even listen when canines dash for their gravy train, BUT we refuse to become excited about a special entitled 'The Great Mesquite Causlaught'—why be forced to visualize that we're so painfully aware of without television rubbing it in? Sleep, scratch and swear. . . the currently popular triple S's.

More new cars—Foye and Robert Vaughn have a lovely new red and white sports model, and Delores Johnson is getting around in a shiny white convertible with touches of red.

Gloria and Marvin Moys returned to Florida Sunday after a weekend visit with Gloria's parents, Ruth and Chink LaFontaine.

Gladys Bethan left early Monday morning for a well earned month vacation—she's going all over. . . stops include Fort Campbell, Ky., Kansas City, Mo. and Washington, D.C.

SIGHTS AND SOUNDS ALONG THE WAY - Bright yellow and several quite new school buses making their daily rounds, the weird attire of gardeners, dressed not for continuing hot weather, but draped against mosquitoes and the tweeting and trilling of strange birds. . . don't know where they found the chill sufficient for migration, but they're already turning up.

business, a letter from the Harrison County Assn. for Retarded Children thanking the group for sponsoring a child at summer camp was read.

Other matters discussed were a listing of clothing, furniture and medicine distributed to needy families in the parish, frequent visits to the county home and a birthday party for one of the residents, Tom Michade, a former rectory employee.

Mrs. M. J. Phillips, Jr., president of the altar society, expressed gratitude to Mrs. E. M. Brignac for her generous donation, Misses Alden Manfray and Louis Moreau gave accounts of several summer projects and Mrs. George Stevenson volunteered to investigate needs of the society and to attend to replacement and repair of linens and vestments; assisted by Mrs. Lucille Weeks.

Following a closing prayer, Misses Ivon Bradford, H. A. Chapman and Edward Herbert served refreshments to the 26 members in attendance.

Dear Friends:

Some months ago we started our re-modeling program for the Funeral Home. Within the week we will complete this program with the installation of wall-to-wall carpets and new furniture throughout. I sincerely hope that this improvement will meet our needs for the next few years to come, as we grow with Bay St. Louis and Waveland.

Several months ago, South Mississippi and especially the Gulf Coast area has been approached by large chain operating funeral establishments, hoping to buy or take over locations in our area. The operation of a foreign, out-of-state firm would greatly reduce the personal interest in our people's needs, and bring about a great change in the attitude and loyalty of SERVICE ABOVE SELF.

On September 7th of this year, Mr. Robert Rieman of Gulfport and myself completed a legal transition of operation for the Faboy-Whitfield Funeral Home, bringing it into operation with his funeral home of Pass Christian, Long Beach and Gulfport. In the future I will devote all my attention and efforts to calling and underserving the entire population of this area with our new Funeral Service and Life Final Arrangement (cash) Plans of Insurance.

Through this combined effort, the Rieman-Faboy-Whitfield Funeral Home will give better service, both to the funeral needs, as well as the insurance needs for underwriting this inevitable event.

I will always have a deep interest in this area. Like my family before me I will continue to serve you and will try never to betray the trust that has been placed upon me.

May we look forward, with Trust in God, Faith in each other and strive for a better community and state in which to live.

Sincerely,

Kenneth E. Whitfield

Just a start

It will take only a casual reading of Page 1 this week to show why the Echo from the beginning has said Hancock County would have to experience a period of "growing pains" if any real benefit would accrue to the county as a result of the location of NASA's test facility here.

Already, and it's only the beginning, both school systems are finding that additional funds are imperative just to meet present needs. The overcrowding at Gulfview could perhaps be temporarily relieved by reopening the Clermont Harbor school, but where would you get the needed teacher when Gulfview has only five teachers for eight grades. Soon there is going to be a need for a school at Pearlington.

The Bay system is short one classroom now. What will be the situation if only 20 per cent of the estimated 3,000 workers settle in this area?

Our hospital is frequently full now. What if the county gets a third of the construction workers, not infrequent victims of accidents? The grand jury recommends enlargement of our facilities. The hospital board has asked the board of supervisors to look into the matter.

And what about water and fire protection? None of these things can be done overnight. They all cost money. Everybody wants them. Nobody wants to pay for them.

Generally conservative, opposed to many of our give-away programs, and as ardent as anyone in emotional opposition to paying taxes, the Echo, nevertheless, thinks our officialdom is already late in making plans, in recognizing, election year or not, the necessity for stiffly increased taxes, and in taking advantage of the opportunity presented us. Sure it costs money and a lot of people will grumble. So what!

And now comes autumn, the season that brings the college students thronging back to the campus and the fathers thronging back to the personal loan counter.

CIVIL SERVICE TEST

Applications are now being accepted for the 1963 Federal Service Entrance Examination, the U. S. Civil Service Commission has announced. Applicants by Sept. 27 will be scheduled for the written test Oct. 13.

Black participates in strike maneuver

Army Staff Sgt. Walter C. Black, 33, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter T. Black, Rt. 3, Picaune, participated with more than 70,000 Army and Air Force personnel in Exercise SWIFT STRIKE II, a two-week U. S. Strike Command maneuver in North and South Carolina that ended Aug. 17.

Black is a heavy-equipment repairman in Co. B of the 94th Quartermaster Battalion regularly stationed at Ft. Lee, Va. He entered the Army in April 1948. The Sergeant is a 1944 graduate of McNeil High School. His wife, Virginia, lives in Hopewell, Va.

Requests dealing with 16th section lands were referred to the board of supervisors, since the school system has nothing to do with administering these tracts. In addition, on advice of Attorney Walter James Phillips, the board refused to deed an acre of school land to Mrs. Ruby Moran. Phillips advised that even sale of the land would require advertising for bids, to which Board President C. B. Murphy commented that the advertising would cost as much as the school system would receive for the land.

Also held over for study was the question of providing transportation to Pass Christian for retarded children, while Superintendent K. G. McCarty was advised that he did not need board approval to pay the fees for state inspection of school buses.

Transportation bills docketed number 38 through 59 were approved as were district fund bills docketed number 31 through 46, except numbers 31, 36 and 42. The bill was held over, while two were returned to North Central payable from school athletic funds and not from district funds.

The board adjourned until 2:30 p.m., Oct. 1.

Becker cites postal rules on indemnity

"There is a general misunderstanding among the mailing public that indemnity will be paid by the Postoffice Department on all lost or damaged mail," says Postmaster Andy Becker. Persons are often disturbed when they present a damaged parcel and find that no indemnity will be paid unless it is insured, registered, or COO.

"Although every effort is made to protect all mail while it is in the custody of the postal service," the postmaster said, "unavoidable circumstances occasionally occur which result in mail being lost or damaged."

The fact that indemnity is not paid on ordinary mail, however, does not mean that the Postoffice has no interest in situations where ordinary mail is lost or damaged or otherwise improperly handled. Becker noted that reports by the public on lost, missing, delayed, or damaged ordinary mail are of the greatest value in finding and correcting faults in the postal service.

Complaints may be made in writing to him or by calling HO 7-6393. If the complaint concerns the mishandling of mail, the envelope or wrapper should be submitted.

BY CECILE TURCOTTE HO 7-4659

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. White and children, Emmitt and Karen, were recent guests of Mrs. White's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Sterling, in Liberty, Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Dalcuse and Albert Galtier, all of New Orleans, are the guests this week of Mrs. Ada Edal.

Labor Day weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph DiSalvo were Mr. and Mrs. George Keenke of Metairie, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Bonvillian, Mr. and Mrs. John Caruway and children, and Ronald and Joe Hartzender, all of New Orleans.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Probst, Jr., formerly of Colorado Springs, Colo., are now residing at the Senior Probst home on Ship Street.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Phillips of New Orleans were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Johnson on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Galde have returned to Orlando, Fla., after spending a 10-day vacation with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Lytell.

son Hardware Co., Jackson, for a welding machine at $119.63, and voted to borrow $18,000 in anticipation of taxes, an amount estimated to be sufficient added to money on hand and coming from other sources to operate the schools through October.

At Monday's meeting Mrs. Charles A. Russ, Jr., was sworn in as Beat 1 supervisor. Mrs. Russ was appointed to fill the vacancy created by the death of her husband Aug. 27 until a special election for his successor is held. Also at Monday's meeting the board set Oct. 23 as the date for the special election for Beat 1 supervisor.

The superintendent said it was not feasible to turn the new 66-passenger bus around until the Jackson Ridge area, which he estimated would mean a five to ten minute delay for other students, and that with the increased enrollment this was important.

It's 1962 Our readers write

Editor, Sea Coast Echo:
As a frequent visitor to the Kila-Banana area, and a retired engineer (bridges, highways, etc.) I am appalled at the snail's pace construction of the Kila Highway.

Having retired after serving 35 years as an engineer I think

I am qualified to say that I have never seen such slow progress of earth moving, by a construction Co. We have had an exceptionally dry summer, 6 months. Beautiful weather, yet they will not complete their base fill before next year. (Construction progress rate, 3 miles per year, exclusive of asphalt.) This is progress? I think you the total length of the road is only 9.5 miles. If they had 25 miles and constructed at their present rate, it would take them a lifetime to complete. Certainly engineers of the Miss. Highway Dept., assigned to this project, see that the amount of equipment being used is totally inadequate for the job.

We moved earth in the 30's at the rate they are progressing now, but we did not have mechanized equipment. Somebody wake up. This is 1962 not 1932.

Truly yours,
HOWARD J. LEETON

By gone days

25 YEARS AGO
Sept. 10, 1937 - The St. Stanislaus Sideline Club began its second year of operation this week, and the same set of officers were re-elected for the coming term. R. Terrell Perkins will serve as president, W. J. Gex, vice-president, Edward L. Jones, secretary and E. F. Foley as treasurer.

10 YEARS AGO
Sept. 12, 1952 - Mississippi's first offshore test oil well has been abandoned as dry. The well, located near Clermont Harbor, met with no success, but another will be drilled soon.

Bay High drops 6-0 decision to Wiggins

Bay High prepares for tonight's invasion of the Pass Christian Pirates, after their season grid opener was spoiled last Friday by the Wiggins Tomcats 6-0 at Perkinson Stadium. The Tigers and Pirates inaugurate their '62 conference seasons with the contest, slated to begin at 8 p.m. at St. Stanislaus Stadium.

Coach Lance Lumpkin's Tigers outplayed their Friday opponents in almost every category, but the loss of six fumbles, alternately occurring either deep in Wiggins territory when a score seemed about to be made or deep in their own ground, giving the Tomcats several golden opportunities, one of which led to a score.

The only tally in the game came in the second stanza on a short line play after a fourth-down pass had set up the six-point payoff. Wiggins recovered a fumble inside the 30-yard line and moved the rest of the way. The scoring drive was the only time the Tomcats could muster any offense against a rugged Tiger defense which pushed Wiggins ball-carriers backwards most of the time.

Bay High halfbacks Dick Warrs and Don Saucier gained some yardage in the first half, and fullback Stanley Burch found good holes on a couple of occasions, but the Bengals left the field with only 36 rushing yards and one completed pass.

After a scoreless and rather dull third period which saw one punt after another, Bay High had their big moment in the final quarter with seven minutes remaining. Saucier, the only returning backfield letterman from last season, returned a punt 12 yards to his own 49, then took a screen pass from quarterback Leroy Lake and romped through and over would-be tacklers behind good blocking for 33 yards to the Wiggins 18. But a fumble on the next play handed the ball over to the Tomcats and a fifteen-yard penalty against the Tigers moved the ball out near the center of the field. The Tigers never again threatened, although it seemed they got a bad break when, as time was running out, a Tomcat back saw the ball fall out of his grasp and after a wild scramble the Tigers recovered on the Wiggins 25. The officials ruled the back was in the act of passing, though, and the ball was awarded back to the Tomcats who stalled the remaining seconds.

The entire Tiger line stood out as the game's top performers, and they'll form the backbone of the squad tonight when Pass High invades to open the Gulf Coast Conference season.

Alliston among 6 returnees at PRJC

Pearl River Junior College Wildcats, hopping off to a fast pace in the tight state junior college conference race by beating the Delta Trojans last weekend, will be up against stiffer opposition in this Saturday night's game with Southwest's Bears.

Center Woody Alliston, former Gulf Coast Conference line-man-of-the-year, is one of only six veterans returning to Coach Debie Holden at Pearl River Junior College.

Although the Wildcats set record-after-record in the Mississippi Junior College conference last year, receiving and turning down an invitation to the Junior Rose Bowl in Pasadena, Calif., nearly all of that team's stars are gone. Two such players are

SCS Aids 15 Farmers in 1st Half of Year

Fifteen farmers have been assisted by the Hancock County Soil Conservation District with conservation planning during the first half of 1962, adding 1,263 acres under planning for this period.

Technicians Hugh Sandord and Mark Duman also announced it is now possible for the district to give some planning assistance on roadside erosion control to individual members of the board of supervisors. An agreement, similar to that used for farmers, is required in processing the plan. In both cases requests generally can be handled immediately but in some cases advance notice should be given.

Planning assistance was given to these cooperators from Jan. 1 to June 30: Larry Rester, Louis A. Borne, W. J. Pippin, all of Leetown; A. E. Sanders, S. G. Thigpen, both of Piquette; L. W. Mitchell, Herbert Knight, Dan Williams, Jordan Mitchell, Paul Bounds, H. A. Broughton, all of Flattop; H. J. Ritzky, Pass Christian; J. S. Shaw, Crane Creek; L. N. Cantero, Lakeshore, and P. Stern, Waveland.

Advice on soil conservation problems may be obtained from the county office 1 in the Agricultural Center on Necaise Avenue.

ADULT LEADERS TO MEET
Adult Girl Scout leaders of Bay-Waveland neighborhoods have called a meeting for 7:30 p.m. Tuesday at the Fellowship Hall of Main Street Methodist Church to make plans for troops this fall. Anyone interested in scouting is welcome; training dates for early October will be announced.

Rock, Tiger squads open play at home

Bay High and St. Stanislaus unfold their 1962 home football seasons tonight and tomorrow night, respectively, at St. Stanislaus Stadium. A large crowd is expected to watch Coach Lance Lumpkin's Bengals battle their old-time rivals, the Pass High Pirates in the Gulf Coast Conference opener for both squads tonight, while an equally large audience will attend the SSC opening against Biloxi St. Martin, which promises plenty of fireworks as new coach Billy Murphy puts the single-wing system of attack into use.

Bay High, boasting a rough hard-hitting line and a speedy, though inexperienced backfield, will attempt to get into the win column after a 6-0 loss to Wiggins last Friday night. Lumpkin's charges will count on halfback Don Saucier for most of the running assignments, and linemen Alvin Lachar, Don Rymer, Tadde, Billy, and Jerry Thomas, Bill Pahlman, Davey Smith, and Frank Miller will bolster the Bengal defense.

St. Stanislaus will depend a lot on back Cadden Jones who operated well at both halfback and quarterback last season and seems to be made to order for a single-wing formation in which both are essential. Center Mike Mashburn, a standout in 1961, and Paul Aucoin, Larry Fee, and Bruce Anthony are among the leading linemen back.

The Rocks, starting their season a week later than Bay High, are favored to defeat St. Martin, 7-0 losers to an improved Harrison Central eleven last week in a Gulf Coast Conference game. SSC is not a loop member. Pass High, 20-6 winner over Vancleave last Friday, is rated even with Bay High, with the Tigers possibly a slim choice. Both games will begin at 8 p.m.

What do you mean by investor-owned?

A good question, sir, and one that we're proud and happy to answer.

Mississippi Power Company is owned by thousands of individuals who have freely put their savings in shares of our stock. Each share represents a unit of ownership in the company.

More than 120,000 men and women are direct investors in Mississippi Power Company and its parent firm, The Southern Company. Our shareholders come from every walk of life. In fact, many are customers and employees.

Almost everyone in the nation has at least an indirect financial interest in America's business-managed electric companies. Much of the money placed in life insurance policies, savings accounts and pension funds is invested in electric utility stocks and bonds.

Under our free enterprise system, the people own American industry, and the people benefit from its efficient operation. In providing low-cost electric power for you, we are also doing a good job for our thousands of owners.

Hears... top 10 season

...of Pittsburgh and Miami (Fla., officially open...
...are scheduled for this weekend as most squads be...

...everyone else is going out on the limb picking the...
...will follow suit, although it's just about impossible...
...many teams until they see game action. Last year...

...the top pick of the majority of polls, Iowa, didn't...

...many teams look to us before the start of the season...
...LSU, 3, Iowa, 4, Tennessee, 5, Duke, 6, Ohio State...

...Mississippi, 9, Georgia Tech, 10, Southern California...
...why?

...Tenn. had an outstanding squad, possibly the best in...
...The Longhorns lost only to TCU in an upset by six...

...lost some good players, but he has a lot returning...
...isn't tough in our estimation, because we don't...

...Southwest Conference is an unusually powerful league...
...like to think that either LSU or Ole Miss could finish...

...The Bengals have a good chance - Coach Charlie...
...inherited a team which includes 26 returning letter...

...an outstanding sophomore corps. Among the sophomores...
...LSU's fortunes - quarterback Pat Screen, who, as many...

...might remember, played for Jesuit's Blue Jays two sea-...
...that New Orleans school played St. Stanislaus in Bay...

...with a hard schedule, though, it will be difficult for the...
...through the season without being beaten.

...schedule is weak

...chances are hurt badly by that annual nemesis, a weak...
...week schedule can work against a team as much as an...

...that has been proven by the Rebs the past few years...
...against LSU. While Ole Miss was breezing to 40-0, 50-0...

...wins over Chattanooga, Houston, Memphis State...
...etc., LSU was up against Rice, Georgia Tech, Florida...

...when the two meet, LSU always comes up with close...

...At least, recently).

...Miss will go through the first half of their season undefer-...
...lacking a big upset, and if the Rebs manage to beat LSU and...

...they might win everything.

...Speaking of Tennessee, they're our biggest dark-horse. The Vols...
...they field a tough, hard-hitting team and we think their schedule...

...is just right. Alabama is overrated, (more about that later) and...
...Ole Miss upset the Tide in their season's fourth game, the...

...Yale will then move into national recognition. They're a long shot...
...but they'll have to beat Alabama, Georgia Tech, and Ole Miss, but...

...if they win those and get by Auburn in a season-opener, Miss, State...
...Chattanooga, Wake Forest, Tulane, Kentucky, and Vandy should...

...come easy.

...Saying with the Southeastern Conference teams, Georgia Tech...
...is picked by many as a leading SEC contender, which they might...

...The Engineers lack depth, however, and a heavy schedule re-...
...quires a certain amount of reserve strength. Tech will make things...

...tough for LSU, Tennessee, Alabama, Duke and their other opponents.

...We won't take Bama

...Alabama is the choice of several polls for the top slot. Quarter-...
...back Pat Trammell was lost through graduation, and fullback Mike...

...Franklin, an All-America candidate, is injured, and the Bama line...
...isn't enough to hold the entire team up. We feel strongly that Ala-

...bama does not have a squad of the caliber of the '61 national cham-...
...pions. Bear Bryant has the knack of winning games, but if Bama...

...loses undefeated, it'll shock this writer.

...Looking briefly, at our other choice, we like Iowa better than...
...Ole Miss, leading nationwide champion contender in the AP poll...

...the favorite in the Big Ten just never wins, and the Haw-...
...keyns have a crew of experienced, talented boys. Duke is the class...

...of the Atlantic Coast Conference; Army, another sleeper, has Paul...
...Rundt, enough for a 3-5 record; Southern California has a spirited...

...and is the best in the wild West.

BAY BELLE BOWLERS - Surrounding Frank Trappan, sponsor of first place bowlers in Bay Belle league are, standing, Lydia Nacalce, Janet Alme, Lou Wilkerson, winner of high series and high average awards and Myrna Lundin, high team series winner. ...with a game's experience under their belts, we believe the Tigers...
...are ready!

...A second game on the local front is slated for Friday night, on...
...the St. Stanislaus Rock-A-Choww battle St. Martin of Biloxi in their...

...season opener. It's hard to say how the Rocks will fare with the...
...single-wing attack new coach Billy Murphy has put into effect, but...

...we imagine the Yellowjackets will be doing pretty good.

...Taking a brief peek at the bowling scene, local teenager Tommy...
...Humphreys, a 15-year old, came up with a 229 game during the Sun...day night boys' scratch league at Bay Bowling Center. This is the...

...best league score recorded in an American Junior Bowling Congress...

...sanctioned league since the Bay establishment opened its doors two...
...years ago.

...The Thursday night men's scratch league closed two weeks ago...
...on an exciting note when Buck Kimball started his final game with...

...seven strikes in a row before being stepped with a nine-count. He...
...still managed 258 without an open frame, throwing eight strikes...

...and getting below nine pins on his first ball only once.

...Stars of the week: Red Laver and Margaret Smith, a pair of...
...Australians, downed the best of the United States tennis players in...

4 Teams Push Legion Member Roster to 500

A drive to top the 500-mark in membership is now in progress by four teams of the American Legion. Team captains are Joe Benvenuti, John D. Rutherford, Jr., Russell Elliott and Harold Saucier.

Last year's enrollment for the post was 463 as it continued to climb in size every year for the last 14. Membership in 1947 was 177.

Eligible are veterans who have received honorable discharges after service from April 6, 1917, to Nov. 11, 1918; Dec. 7, 1941, to Sept. 2, 1945, and June 25, 1950, to July 27, 1953.

The two vying teams will be treated to a steak dinner while the losers will eat red beans.

No word yet on NASA contracts

Purchase of three more tracts in the NASA fee area have been completed during the last week by the Army Corps of Engineers while negotiations are continuing with International Paper Co. which owns some 80 per cent of the acreage involved.

O. B. Moore, project manager for the real estate acquisition office here, listed purchases totaling $16,860 as follows: Gainesville Baptist Church, 46 acres, $11,000; Oliver E. Keller, 1 acre, $4,500, and Era Fulton Benies, 5.29 acres, $1,360.

Reports circulating to the contrary, no contracts involving the Hancock County test site have yet been let, according to Jim Funkhouser, NASA public relations officer at the Michoud plant. He also reported no firm date has been fixed so far on groundbreaking.

Guy A. Parsons of Baton Rouge has joined the appraisal section of the real estate office.
